

SA1171236

18th Century Lacquered Japanned Longcase Clock from London Circa 1740

Price

SoldItem Reference: SA1171236*Date of manufacture: Georgian

Description

A superb mid 18th-century London longcase clock, finished in green japanned lacquer with gilt scenes of figures, pagodas, and landscapes. The clock features a silvered brass dial with Roman numerals, matted center, and gilt spandrels, all framed by a richly detailed hood with gilt finials and columns. Clock dial signed by Thomas Hickson, London. The case retains its original painted and gilded decoration with a lovely aged patina, showcasing fine craftsmanship and elegant proportions typical of early Georgian design. The clock case is in good, original condition with minimal wear consistent with age and use. The clock movement is beautifully preserved and it has recently been professionally serviced. Dimensions: Approximately 230 cm Height Width 51 cm Depth 27 cm

Seller Details

School House Antiques

Hertfordshire United Kingdom

Tel: 07498 776 944

International Tel: +44 7498 776 944