Description

A fine Edwardian oak desk or office chair dating from the early 20th century. The piece features a beautifully curved backrest and arms, complemented by its original deep red velvet upholstery with decorative trim. Crafted from solid oak, the chair is sturdy and well-balanced, showcasing the craftsmanship and quality typical of the Edwardian period. Its comfortable proportions make it ideal as a desk, dressing, or occasional chair. Seat height: 46 cm. The chair is offered in very good antique condition, with a lovely patina and only light wear consistent with age. A charming and characterful addition to any traditional or vintage-inspired interior.
