Description

A charming pair of Victorian bedroom chairs dating from around 1870. Each chair features an elegantly carved mahogany frame with a pierced vase-shaped splat, cabriole front legs fitted with original brass castors, and a comfortable seat newly upholstered in soft check-patterned fabric. Beautifully proportioned and rich in period detail, these chairs would make a wonderful addition to a classic or country-inspired bedroom, dressing room, or hallway. Seat height: 44 cm Both chairs are in very good condition for their age, solid and stable, with fresh upholstery and only light signs of use consistent with age.
