Description

A beautiful walnut bureau dating from around 1920, designed in the elegant Queen Anne style. This compact yet practical piece features a stunning figured walnut veneer with a warm patina and graceful cabriole legs. The fall-front opens to reveal a fitted interior with pigeonholes, a small drawer, and a tooled leather writing surface. Below are three smooth-running drawers offering generous storage space. In very good condition for its age — sturdy, clean, and ready to use. Please note, the original key is missing, but this does not affect functionality.
