Description

Antique 20th century oak chest of drawers, a superb piece of furniture of the finest quality, crafted by the renowned maker Maple & Co. This exceptional example showcases the company's hallmark craftsmanship and attention to detail, combining elegance with practicality. The chest features a total of five drawers arranged as two smaller drawers over three full-width drawers, each fitted with its original brass handles and fittings. The drawer fronts and frieze are beautifully finished with fine reeded detailing, adding a subtle yet refined decorative touch. The piece stands firmly on classic bracket feet, giving it a balanced and timeless silhouette. The oak boasts a stunning grain and rich golden colour, enhanced by a deep, natural patina developed over time. Solid in construction and in great condition throughout, this is a very rare and desirable example from one of Britain's most respected furniture makers. A wonderful statement piece that would make a perfect and practical addition to any home.
