Description

Antique 19th century pair of tub chairs, crafted from high quality rosewood. Very well made and of fine quality, these chairs showcase exceptional craftsmanship and a high attention to detail. Each chair stands on turned legs with casters, combining elegance with practical mobility. The rosewood displays a magnificent grain and rich colour, enhanced by stunning inlay work that adds a refined decorative touch. The chairs are beautifully upholstered in a green fabric, complementing the warmth of the rosewood and providing comfortable seating. Solidly constructed and in great condition, this pair is both durable and visually striking. A very desirable and rare find, these tub chairs make a perfect addition to any home, adding a touch of classic sophistication and timeless elegance.
