Description

A magnificent Edwardian centre table, crafted in solid mahogany around 1910. This impressive square-top table features beautifully hand-carved decorative swags and rosettes along the frieze and elegant tapered legs with carved bellflower details — a hallmark of fine Edwardian craftsmanship. The proportions make it ideal as a dining table for 4–8 people or as a striking centrepiece in a formal room, library, or study. Excellent antique condition, solid and sturdy, with only light surface marks consistent with age and use.
