Description

A delightful mid-19th century Victorian bedroom chair, dating from around 1860. This elegant piece features a simple curved backrest, turned mahogany front legs on original castors, and a newly reupholstered seat in a bold geometric fabric that adds a modern twist to its timeless charm. The frame is solid and well-preserved, offering both comfort and character. Perfect as an occasional or bedroom chair, blending classic Victorian craftsmanship with contemporary design. Seat height: 47 cm. Excellent antique condition with minor age-related wear consistent with age.
