Description

A beautiful early 20th-century English oak drop-leaf table featuring an oval top and classic barley twist legs. This charming piece dates from around the 1920s and showcases the warm, rich tones of solid oak with a lovely natural grain pattern. The twin drop leaves can be easily raised or lowered, allowing the table to function perfectly as a compact side table or an occasional dining table when extended. Width (extended): 105 cm. Excellent vintage condition with minor age-related wear consistent with use. Solid, stable and full of character — a fine example of English craftsmanship.
