Description

A charming mid-19th century Victorian bedroom chair, dating from around 1860. This elegant piece features a solid mahogany frame with beautifully turned front legs on castors and a simple, curved backrest typical of the Victorian era. The seat has been newly upholstered in luxurious golden velvet with a subtle floral pattern, adding a touch of warmth and sophistication to the classic design. Perfect as a bedroom, dressing table, or occasional chair — a timeless addition to any traditional or eclectic interior. Seat height: 47 cm Excellent condition for its age, solid and sturdy with minor signs of wear consistent with age and use.
