Description

A charming Edwardian oak occasional table, dating from around 1910, featuring an elegant oval top supported by slender square tapering legs united by cross stretchers for added stability. Crafted from solid oak with a beautiful medium patina, this versatile piece is perfect as a coffee table, lamp table, or bedside stand. Its simple yet refined lines reflect the Edwardian taste for understated craftsmanship and timeless design. Condition: Excellent antique condition. The table is solid and sturdy with a warm original finish and minor surface marks consistent with age.
