Description

Fabulous 1930's Art Deco English wall light sconces and is one of our most treasured finds of recent. The glass is clean and bright and in a wonderful pea green colouring, the chrome fittings has minimal signs of aging . A wonderful opportunity to make an impressive impact to any room, perhaps a bathroom, hallway or anywhere to accent a space. The glass is without damage or any noteworthy aging signs. The bulb holders are brass bayonet type. As these are wall lights, the fittings are for sale without wiring, so must be installed by a qualified electrician. Made in England by the general electric company, this light is completely original and are becoming increasingly hard to source. This is a good size light and looks as equally attractive switched on or off. FREE UK mainland delivery
