Description

George IV Mahogany Fold-Over Table (c.1780-90) An elegant George IV mahogany fold-over table, crafted in beautifully figured mahogany with a rich, warm patina. The rectangular top with rounded corners opens to reveal a larger surface, ideal for tea or cards. The table features a single frieze drawer with brass handles and an inset brass key escutcheon, all supported on square tapering legs of refined simplicity. This fine example of early 19th-century craftsmanship combines practicality with understated elegance, making it a versatile addition to any period or contemporary interior. Dimensions 69 92 48cm Condition: Very good antique condition with minor age-related wear, surface marks consistent with use. Delivery UK mainland £75 A charming and functional piece showcasing the timeless appeal of Georgian design and quality mahogany construction.
