SELLING ANTIQUES REF NO

SA1171909

Chinese Qianlong Marked Dragon Fish Porcelain Incense Burner Qing Dynasty 19th c

Price

GBP 895
| USD $1,212 | EUR 1,047

Item Reference: SA1171909

Date of manufacture: 19th Century

Dimensions
Width = 10.7 cm (4.2")

Description

A Chinese Qianlong Marked Dragon Fish Porcelain Incense Burner - Qing Dynasty Uncover a piece of Chinese heritage with this striking ceramic incense burner. The lid features a powerful, mythical Dragon-Fish emerging from swirling waves and clouds, a potent symbol of perseverance, success, and transformation. Its rich brown and vibrant blue glazes create a dramatic visual, while the base bears a distinctive Qianlong seal mark, connecting it to the golden age of Chinese porcelain. Perfect for meditation, an altar, or as an eye-catching collector's centre piece, this censer brings both fragrance and powerful symbolism to any collection. A piece of myth and majesty Period: Late Qing Dynasty, Late 19th / early 20th c. bearing an apocryphal Qianlong mark covered in gilt. 10.7cm approx diameter Condition: Good, No chips, cracks or repairs Provenance: Private collection, London

Seller Details

Sandbanks Antiques

Sandbanks Poole Dorset United Kingdom By appointment only in Poole or London.

Tel: 07889 139677

International Tel: +44 7889 139677