Description

An elegant Georgian mahogany sideboard, dating from around 1820, featuring a refined rectangular top surmounted by an original brass gallery rail. The piece includes three drawers across the front and two cupboard doors below, offering ample storage. Crafted from fine flame mahogany veneers with boxwood stringing, this sideboard stands on shaped bracket feet and retains its original brass handles and a working central lock with key. The polished surface displays a rich patina, characteristic of Georgian craftsmanship and quality. Perfect as a statement piece in a dining room, hallway, or study, combining elegance with practicality. Height: 123 cm with brass rail. Excellent antique condition. Structurally sound with minor surface marks consistent with age. Polished finish and smooth-running drawers.
