Description

An attractive set of six Georgian spindle back dining chairs, dating from around 1800, including two armchairs and four side chairs. Beautifully crafted in solid elm and ash, these chairs feature elegant turned spindle backs, shaped top rails, and rush seats in very good condition. Raised on tapered front legs united by H-stretchers for stability, this timeless design embodies early 19th-century country craftsmanship. Each chair has developed a wonderful patina, showcasing the natural warmth and depth of aged wood. A classic and comfortable set, perfect for traditional dining rooms, farmhouse kitchens, or period interiors. Seat height: 47 cm. Excellent antique condition. Solid and sturdy throughout, with minor age-related wear adding authentic charm.
