Description

This Caucasian rug is rich with artistic flair. Curly latched-hooks are a clever addition to the main border, whilst the zig-zag motifs transform into a row of flower heads on the top panel. The central field is characterised by a set of explosive Lezghi stars, as well as smaller rosettes and scorpions motifs, which incorporate the ivory, cerulean and red found on the borders. Despite not being perfectly symmetrical, this rug has a magical appeal that extends far beyond its physical imperfections.
