Description

This majestic Sewan Kazak displays bold tribal imagery in a beautiful way. The moss green border shows lovely variations of abrash, helping the latched-hook diamonds to pop, whilst the plants within the central field glimmer with soft blues and creams. It is here where the impressive shield medallion is displayed, drawing together a variety of natural imagery into its frame, before centring on the humble eight-pointed star. Despite showing plenty of wear across its surface, this can take nothing away from the captivating design of this rug, that is sure to catch the attention of those who see it.
