Description

A George 111 Mahogany Sectaire Bookcase in need of some minor restoration otherwise in very good order. The lower section with three drawers with Regency black wood handles with bone middle and bone key insets. The secretaire piece in sycamore with eight pigeon holes with pull out shelves above, two pull out book boxes and a centre inlaid door revealing three more drawers below this is a further two small drawers and longer one below on both sides and inlaid leather to front. The drawers have bone handles. The top with astragal doors has been painted white and with three shelves to either side. Generally in very good order with a polish up. The piece above the secretaire which the bookcase sits on has had a repair which has been badly coloured and a few scratches these can be seen in the last three pictures as to area and the piece is priced as such.
