Description

A Lovely Pair of Victorian Sterling Silver Posy Vases beautifully chased with floral garlands, scrolling foliage, and decorative fluting. The scalloped rims and gently tapering forms evoke the ornate sophistication of the era - perfect for displaying single blooms or petite floral arrangements. Hallmarked for London, 1899. * Once used to hold small floral gifts or "posies" exchanged between loved ones in the Victorian era. Their compact size makes them ideal for modern interiors while retaining all the refinement of true period silver. Measurements: Height: 4 1/2" (approx. 11.5cm) Diameter across top: 1 3/4" (approx. 4.5cm) Total weight: 300g In good condition - Both vases stand evenly with no splits or repairs. Chasing and repoussé work remain crisp and well-defined. Light surface patina appropriate to age, enhancing depth and character.
