Description

A Nice Antique Victorian hors d'oeuvres Set consisting of 7 forks featuring luminous mother-of-pearl handles and intricately engraved silver-plated tines — a classic combination of function and finery. Each handle catches the light with soft pearlescent tones with each piece being unique due to the natural variation in the shell. Each fork is decorated with finely chased floral and scroll motifs. Marked with the registration number 312011 for the year 1898. * Perfect as a seafood utensil - ideal for gracefully lifting oysters, shrimp, or small bites from their shells or serving platter. Measurements: Length: 4 1/4" (approx. 11cm) Total weight: 358g In good condition – The silver-plated tines show only minor surface wear consistent with age and occasional use. The engraved detailing remains sharp and visible across all pieces. The mother-of-pearl handles are free from cracks or chips and retain a beautiful natural luster.
