Description

A beautifully crafted Royal Worcester porcelain figurine depicting a cherub carrying a large basket on its back. The figure is rendered with exquisite attention to detail, showcasing the soft modelling and delicate hand-painting characteristic of Royal Worcester's fine porcelain. The cherub features finely detailed golden curls and a gentle, downcast expression, balanced gracefully as it supports a basket designed in a realistic woven style with gilded rope accents. The figure stands on a naturalistic mound base, enriched with earthy tones and finished with a gilt-edged circular plinth. The underside bears the Royal Worcester puce factory mark. An elegant and charming example of Royal Worcester's artistry, this figure demonstrates the brand's mastery in combining classical themes with Victorian decorative refinement — a perfect addition for collectors of antique English porcelain.
