Description

This is a beautiful early 20th century French porcelain and toleware table lamp. The lamp has the most exquisite cherub group of musicians to the centre, framed by an arbour of pretty gilded foliage with porcelain floral blooms. The lamp is a most attractive design with a delightful hanging beadwork shade with pretty porcelain floral dome to the top and solid brass finial. This is rewired with modern cable ready for use in the home. This is a really rare and beautiful piece, the cherubs are in perfect condition with delightful colours. It takes a standard bayonet fitting bulb and looks really charming when lit. The light is a good size measuring 50 cms in height with the base being 16 cms by 13 cms. UK insured packing and delivery is £20.
