Description

An impressive and rare 18th century mahogany tea table, smothered in beautiful marquetry inlaid pattern. Demi lune shaped top with segmented inlay and marquetry detailing, above a decorative frieze with inlaid harebell swags. The top lifts open and is supported by a gate leg, revealing a polished mahogany table surface, raised on tall tapering square legs with inlay continued down to square feet. This table has a wonderful rich mahogany colour, contrasted beautifully with the lighter coloured satinwood. In excellent showroom condition.
