Description

Antique Victorian Nursing Armchair Mahogany Frame c.1880 An elegant Victorian nursing armchair, dating from around 1880, featuring a beautifully carved mahogany frame with delicate inlay detail and rich patina. The chair retains its classic deep buttoned upholstery in a warm rose velvet fabric, finished with brass stud trim. The turned front legs stand on original ceramic castors, allowing easy movement. Its low, deep seat and gentle recline make it both comfortable and graceful — perfect for a bedroom, reading nook, or decorative corner. Seat height: 40 cm Condition: Very good antique condition. The frame is solid, upholstery clean with only minor age-related wear, adding to its authentic charm.
