Description

A charming mid-19th century mahogany bedroom chair, featuring a gracefully curved backrest with a shaped top rail and elegant reeded front legs. The chair is upholstered in a luxurious cream damask fabric, trimmed with brass studs for a refined finish. Beautifully proportioned and sturdy, this piece displays the warm patina and craftsmanship typical of the Victorian period, making it a timeless addition to any bedroom, dressing area, or hallway. Seat height: 46 cm. Excellent antique condition. The frame is solid, upholstery clean and fresh, with minor age-related marks consistent with its period.
