Description

A Good Quality Pair Of 18th Century Mahogany , Georgian, Hepplewhite Period Side Chairs, Having Shaped Top Rails And Elegant Pierced Splat Backs With Crisply Carved Decoration, Over Upholstered, Bowed Drop In Seats, Raised On Square Chamfered Legs And Stretchers. A very good quality pair of georgian hepplewhite period side chairs which ooze elegance and sophistication from the simplicity of their design. The backs are delicately, but richly carved and the bowed seats are another nice feature. They are absolutely perfect for many, many places around the home or office, far too many to list here in fact. But to mention just a few, we think they would be great in a bedroom, entrance hall or even on a landing. Its also worth bearing in mind that they are perectly functional as proper dining chairs. As with all items which we offer for sale they have been inspected in our workshops by our highly skilled, trained antique furniture restorers, plus received a natural wax polish to ensure that they are ready for immediate placement within the home before being offered for sale. Circa 1780. Height 38in. Width 19.75in. Depth 20in. Seat Height 17.5in.
