Description

A Very Good Quality 18th Century Mahogany Chest Having Well Figured Top Over Dressing Slide And Four Long Drawers With Replacement Rococo Design Brass Swan Neck Handles Raised On Replacement Shaped Bracket Feet Retaining Exceptional Rich Untouched Colour And Patina Throughout (This 18th century chest is constructed from very, very high quality mahogany and is as fit for purpose as the day it was made. It has replacement brass handles, but they are old and of the exact design of the type you would expect this piece to have originally sported. It is also raised on later bracket feet but again these sit well on the chest and are very much of the design and style that it would originally have had.) Circa 1760 Height 32.5in Width 36in Depth 20.5in

Internal Ref: 6217
