Description

This is an antique townhouse washstand. An English, oak and granite bathroom cabinet in Arts & Crafts taste, dating to the late Victorian period, circa 1900. A superb and characterful washstand, showcasing excellent craftsmanship and rich materials, to be expected of a piece exuding the refined aesthetic of the Arts & Crafts movement. Two-section arrangement, presenting a decorative granite surface over a useful cabinet base. Select oak stocks displaying fine grain interest and deep caramel hues throughout. Striking enamelled copper tiles to the back rest, further adorned with cabochon motif for a bold decorative flourish. Pair of candle shelves, perfect for displaying perfumes or ornamental glassware. Black granite top with distinctive, natural vein detail and a tactile, polished finish. Twin field panelled cabinet doors open to reveal practical interior storage for bathroom essentials. Finished with dual towel rails, mounted with Arts & Crafts style buttresses. Raised upon gently tapered legs, lending a balanced and elegant stance. Unmarked as such, but of the quality and style associated with Liberty of London. A distinguished late Victorian washstand, marrying oak craftsman...
