

SA1172807

Pair of Royal Vienna Style Hand-Painted Porcelain Jugs, c.1880

Price

GBP 500

| USD $677 | EUR 585

Item Reference: SA1172807Date of manufacture: 1880

Description

Finely painted pair of Vienna-style porcelain jugs with domed lids and pink finials, richly decorated in ruby and emerald green grounds with tooled gilding. The oval panels depict mythological and allegorical subjects after Angelica Kauffmann, within gilt laurel frames; the reverse panels with gold medallions. Each base bears the blue shield mark and gilt number "25", typical of quality Vienna-style porcelain continuing the Imperial tradition after 1864.

Angelica Kauffmann (1741–1807), a distinguished Neoclassical painter and founder of the Royal Academy, was admired throughout Europe; her compositions were widely reproduced on porcelain.

Richly detailed and elegant, this matching pair unites vivid colours, sophisticated gilding, and classical imagery — an appealing late-19th-century display set. Dimensions: Height 28 cm; diameter 15.6 cm. Condition: Excellent...

Seller Details

Gillers Antiques Ltd

Buckland House Buntingford Hertfordshire SG9 0PY United Kingdom

Tel: 07738 009924

International Tel: +44 7738 009924

