Description

This delightful late Georgian mahogany pedestal sideboard is a testament to timeless craftsmanship and style. The gently bowed centre section anchors the piece, providing a striking contrast to the low mirrored back, which reflects light and elegance into the space. The drawer fronts are adorned with finely figured mahogany veneers, their intricate patterns enhanced by a good patina and mellow colour that only time can bestow. The sideboard's functionality is as impressive as its beauty, with pedestals that opened to reveal a thoughtfully arranged interior. Inside, one will find an array of shelves, a cutlery drawer, and a cellarette, all designed to keep dining essentials organised and within reach. The incorporation of newly covered fabric panels introduces a modern twist to this classic piece, blending the old with the new in a harmonious fashion that is sure to captivate and inspire. Whether used in a traditional setting or as a standout piece in a contemporary home, this sideboard is a celebration of enduring design and sophistication. Height: 42 1/4 inches (107 cm) Width: 67 inches (170 cm) Depth: 21 inches (53 cm)
