Description

An extremely attractive and ever popular Arts & Crafts wall clock playing the Westminster-Chime. The clock strikes on the quarters and the hour. Importantly, it strikes on steel rods, giving a very clear and resonating tone. It is fitted with a STRIKE/SILENT facility. The oak case is beautifully polished with a lovely warm, rich patina. The fully opening front door has bevelled glass panels to the lower half and plain glass to the upper. The silvered dial has black Roman numerals with black hands and is lovely and bright and clean. The 8 day movement (clearly marked with the cross arrows logo of the World renowned maker, HAC) has just been fully overhauled by our 9th generation, BHI registered horologist and carries our usual 12mths full parts and labour guarantee. A really lovely clock in perfect condition that is ready to be hung straight on the wall.
