Description

An exceptional set of ten antique dining chairs, including two armchairs and eight side chairs, beautifully crafted from solid walnut in the 17th-century Louis XIII style. Each chair features an intricately carved high back with pierced scrollwork and turned uprights, showcasing the fine craftsmanship and rich character of the period. The seats are upholstered in soft tan leather, finished with traditional brass stud detailing that enhances their timeless elegance. The turned legs and H-form stretchers provide excellent stability and balance, complementing the ornate design of the backs. This impressive set exudes Baroque sophistication and enduring quality, making it a perfect choice for a grand dining room, period interior, or formal setting.
