Description

A beautifully shaped vintage bentwood wall coat rack, dating from around the 1940s, likely produced in Central Europe (Czech Republic or Poland) in the style of Thonet. Crafted from steamed, bent beech wood, this elegant rack features four large hooks with gently curved arms and a minimalist wooden frame. A perfect balance of functionality and mid-century design charm. This piece would make a stylish and practical addition to any hallway, entryway, or vintage-inspired interior. Very good vintage condition, with minor age-related marks consistent with use and age. Solid and stable construction.
