Description

A stunning example of Art Deco design, this large figured walnut sideboard exudes elegance and craftsmanship. The richly figured walnut veneer showcases beautiful symmetrical grain patterns across the four doors, framed by subtle curved edges and a deep, warm polish that highlights the natural depth of the wood. The four opening doors reveal a spacious storage area inside, ideal for dining ware, linens, or general storage. The piece comes complete with two working keys, and the doors open smoothly, reflecting the care and quality of its construction. In great overall condition, this sideboard makes a striking statement piece for any interior, combining timeless Art Deco style with practical functionality.
