Description

A fantastic late 19th century golden oak church pew with foliate design. Perfect for use a boot room seat or settle. The finely carved end supports depict leaves and berries which spill over the entirety of the top edge and hand rest, and terminate in a carved pilaster. The deep reeded top rail is above a substantial planked back and seat. There are signs of wear commensurate with age, with some scuffs and knocks to the lower edges (please see photographs). Great colour throughout. A really lovely thing. Dimensions:- Length: 130cm Depth: 49.5 Height: 117cm DELIVERY UK Mainland: £75 We use trusted couriers for UK and international delivery.
