Description

A very pretty George III silver caddy spoon of shovel shape with scalloped rim and very sweet heart shaped pierced decoration. Profusely decorated with bright cut engraving featuring a central image of a narcissus flower reserved against a textured background. Further engraved patterns around the row of pierced hearts and the base of the bowl. The handle is nicely cast with further bright cut engraved detail to create a vacant cartouche to the end and feathered detail up the stem. Hallmarked to the reverse for Birmingham 1820, maker Joseph Taylor. Provenance: a private collection. It measures 9.2cm (3 5/8") long and 3.9cm (1 1/2") wide and 9g / 0.3ozt. In excellent condition with no damage, dents or repairs and minimal handling wear.
