Description

A most decorative vase and cover made around the turn of the century possibly by Sampson. A. The photographic image cannot do justice to the quality of this piece. We have displayed it on a stand to give some idea of the scale. This vase and cover is certainly a statement piece and would certainly add to the decor and interest of a fine home. The stand can be purchased separately should you wish, please ask for a quote. For other decorative items, please press the 'view stock button' on this page
