Description

A super oil portrait on canvas of Sir James Nicholl McAdam (1756-1852). This portrait has been hanging in the Supreme Court and was part of the Guildhall Art Collection Trust. The oil painting depicts Sir James wearing a black coat with a white shirt and a black silk cravat - it is in a later frame. It is in very good condition but could do with a heavier back board. It measures 74cm x 61cm.
