Description

Another Robert Kime favourite, a well worn, soft coloured early Turkish carpet, this time from the town of Ghiordes in Western Anatolia (Turkey). He used these extensively to furnish his clients homes, and his own. It's hardly surprising, as he was packed with natural good taste and these rugs bring so much to interior decoration, with the soft magenta, turquoise and cream colours. Heavily worn but that's part of the aesthetic too, and reflected in the price. 4'10" x 9'0"
