Description

Fabulous 18thc/19thc Chinese Ginger Jar with Carved Wooden Lid & Base. Elegant Chinese Blue and White Ginger Jar with Pierced Wooden Cover and Carved Base. A beautiful and finely painted Chinese blue and white porcelain ginger jar, featuring delightful scrolling floral designs across the main body. The artistry and balance of the hand-painted decoration reflect the timeless elegance of 18th–19th century Chinese porcelain craftsmanship. The jar is topped with a turned and intricately pierced wooden cover, perfectly complementing the porcelain beneath, and rests upon a beautifully hand-carved wooden base that enhances its display presence. Condition: Very good, with only light signs of age consistent with careful display. A refined and decorative example of traditional Chinese porcelain, combining graceful form, delicate painting, and expert craftsmanship. This exquisite piece would make a striking addition to any collection of 18th or 19th-century Chinese ceramics or serve as a distinguished decorative accent in an elegant interior.
