Description

-Welcome to Mersham Manor Antiques- An outstanding quality Victorian satinwood five drawer chest of drawers, attributed to Lambs of Manchester. C1870. The decoration on this extremely scarce and unique chest is completely fabulous and extremely abundant. Having embossed and many different hand painted designs throughout. To the top are intricate fruiting grape-vines, banded with acanthus leaves to the rounded corner edge. Lower down the chest the drawer dividers are decorated with pretty painted floral designs. The rounded corners to the chest are even more delightful having an intricate wheat sheaf design. The satinwood drawer fronts are banded with beautifully figured inlaid rosewood, which contrasts so very well with the lighter satinwood. The satinwood to the top and drawer fronts have also been embellished with a hand painted design, having a "birds eye maple" figured pattern. The chest has been attributed to Lambs of Manchester because of its outstanding quality and very similar design to other pieces from this cabinet maker. Founded by James Lamb around 1840, Lambs of Manchester emerged as one of the most successful British cabinet makers of the late nineteenth...
