Description

A good quality arts and crafts style four-tier whatnot dating from the early 20th century. It is made from teak with slatted shelves and square uprights with pointed finials. It has a tall carrying handle over the top shelf. It has an ivory maker's plaque for "Hughes, Bolckow & Co Ld MANUFACTURERS, BATTLESHIP WAR BLYTHE". Hughes, Bolckow & Co were a prominent firm of shipbreakers who were responsible for scrapping a number of famous Royal Navy ships including HMS Britannia. The company had a Ship Timber Department that would create articles manufactured from teakwood taken from obsolete battleships. It is in very good condition for its age and is a good quality piece. There are signs of age and use, some surface marks and light knocks but no major damages and it has a lovely patina. It has been cleaned and gently polished and is ready for use. The best description comes from the photos so please look at them all carefully and if you have any questions just ask. Nationwide delivery available through our network of reliable couriers.
