Description

Antique silver Stauffer & Co IWC pocket watch. The watch has a stem-winding movement which is working nicely. Although Stauffer & Co produced movements in their own right, they also sourced a smaller number of movements from IWC and possibly from other watch companies. This particular movement has the Stauffer & Co mark, together with the Peerless name which tells us that the movement was made by IWC (International Watch Company). The watch measures 49mm diameter excluding the winding stem and the loop. The case is silver and there are Continental 935 silver marks to both of the case backs. The front and sides of the case are in good condition, some unevenness to the back. The watch has a glass lens, it has small marks across it but is very acceptable. The dial has its original pin-set hands, a subsidiary seconds dial and outer minute track. There are a couple of hairlines but they are very faint. The watch comes in a new presentation box.
