Description

A good example of a large Georgian oval mahogany butler's tray dating from the late 18th Century. The base is made from beautiful flame mahogany with a raised laminated gallery with ebony stringing. It has a pair of nicely shaped brass carrying handles. It is a good quality piece with a lovely rich colour and patina. It is in good solid order with no major damages. There are some general signs of age and use and a small split on the underside but nothing detrimental. It has been cleaned and lightly polished and is ready for use. The best description comes from the photos so please look at them all carefully and if you have any questions just ask. Tracked UK Delivery £10
