Description

An Arts & Crafts period brass Pullman table lamp (circa 1900-1910), offered with frosted glass shade. The angle of the bulb holder can be changed from vertical position and is adjustable; we would recommend fitted to table as originally intended if requiring to tilt shade to any great extent to avoid becoming unbalanced. The underside of lamp is stamped with lozenge design registration mark. The lamp professionally polished and fully rewired in period style braided flex. PAT safety tested.
