Description

A fine early C20th Globe Wernicke three-tier barrister bookcase in richly patinated mahogany with wrought iron banding. Each section features its original glazed lift-and-slide doors, moving smoothly and closing securely. The timber has developed a beautiful, even tone with a warm lustre, showcasing the quality of both the craftsmanship and the material. Complete with the original Globe Wernicke maker's label, confirming its authenticity. An excellent example of this iconic design, both practical and decorative, perfect for storing and displaying books or curios.
