Description

A well-proportioned early 18th-century oak chest of drawers on stand with two short over two long drawers. Each of the drawers features cross banding to the face, brass handles, back plates and lock escutcheons. Finished with a beautifully shaped apron and bun feet. Overall condition is very good, with age-related wear and tear. We have noted numerous splits through the top which add to the charm and character of this delightful piece of furniture. Please see images for further details.
