Description

An impressive antique Elkington & Co cutlery canteen, dating from around the 1930s, beautifully presented in a Chippendale-style mahogany console table with three fitted drawers. Renowned for their craftsmanship, Elkington & Co were among Britain's finest silversmiths, and this set perfectly showcases their elegant design and superior quality. The collection includes 86 pieces (12 people) of original stainless and silver-plated cutlery, all marked Elkington & Co – Cutlers & Silversmiths, neatly arranged within custom-lined compartments. The console table itself is a striking example of early 20th-century furniture – crafted from richly toned mahogany, featuring a carved rope-edge top, three drawers with brass handles, and elegant cabriole legs with shell and acanthus detailing ending in claw-and-ball feet. This piece combines both functionality and timeless elegance, serving as a complete dining set and a statement decorative feature. Excellent antique condition. Complete set, clean and well preserved, with minor age-related signs of use. Solid and elegant presentation throughout. A superb collector's piece and a refined addition to any classic or traditional din...
