Description

A charming antique oak plant stand, dating from the 1920s. Crafted from solid English oak, this elegant piece features a beautifully scalloped edge top supported by four barley twist legs connected with stretcher bars for extra stability. The warm honey oak tone and the fine craftsmanship reflect the timeless appeal of early 20th-century English furniture. Perfect for displaying a plant, sculpture, or lamp, this stand adds both function and traditional charm to any interior — from period homes to eclectic modern spaces. Excellent vintage condition, solid and sturdy with rich patina and minimal signs of age.
